

WIN A STAY IN MKHAYA GAME RESERVE

EXCLUSIVE TO WILD CARD MEMBERS

Destinations don't come much more romantic than Stone Camp, Mkhaya Game Reserve's riverine forest hideaway. Thanks to the semi-open cottages you'll feel like you are sleeping out in nature without having to sacrifice any of your creature comforts. A stay at Mkhaya includes a daily guided game drive or walking safari, a chance to add sightings such as black and white rhino, sable and roan antelope, and tsessebe. As night falls, paraffin lanterns light the pathways leading to the dry riverbed where you'll dine under the stars with the sounds of the bush as accompaniment.

Mkhaya Game Reserve offers comfort and close encounters.

PICTURES: STEPHEN CONLIFE

How to enter: Email the answer to the question below along with your name and valid Wild Card number to competition@tipafrica.co.za (subject line: Swaziland).

QUESTION: In which game reserve is Stone Camp located?

Competition rules The competition is open to valid Wild Card members only. The prize is a two-night stay for two people. It includes accommodation, activities, entry fees and meals, but excludes drinks and Government Bed Levies. The prize is valid for six months from the date the prize letter is issued. Big Game Parks of Swaziland reserves the right to accept and award a booking at its sole discretion. Competition closes 31 May 2014.

